

CHAPTER IV

FINDINGS

There are two problems to be discussed in this study; there are the social values through Zootopia movie and how the social values in the Zootopia movie can be implemented in real life. The descriptions are written in the following:

A. Social Values

As stated by Turkkahraman, social values are criteria shared by the majority of a social in an ideal sense, all of which lead them to the better society. Social values regulate and organize daily life. Such values as honesty, sedulity, helpfulness, and modesty are some of these social values.

1. Honesty

Reviewing from the utterance of the dialogues above, there are some similarities and differences in honesty statement from the characters of Zootopia movie. Honesty can be seen from the words. Someone will be called to be honest, if she tells the truth based on what she seen and she heard. If someone tells what she does not see, it means that person lies. There are eight dialogues that show the honesty of words. One of the examples is from Judy, she said “Well. I don't wanna cause you any trouble, but I believe scooping ice cream with an ungloved trunk is a class 3 health code violation.” Judy can say that, because she sees by herself that the waiter in Jumbo-Pop scooping ice cream with trunk.

Besides that, honesty can be in the form of action or deed. This case can happen when someone admits about what she has done in the past or recently to other person to make a better side of her. There are two dialogues that show honesty in deed. The first dialogue is from Gideon, he says “Gideon : Hey, Judy. I'd just like to say I'm sorry for the way I behaved in my youth. I had a lot of self-doubt, and it manifested itself in the form of unchecked rage and aggression. I as a major jerk”. The other one is from Judy, Judy : I wouldn't forgive me either. It was ignorant, and irresponsible, and small-minded.

In additional, there is honesty in desire. Someone will called be honest, if she can make her desire come true or can get the goals by hard working. If she just saying her desire, but she does nothing. It means nonsense. Otherwise, someone who tries to make her desire come true, it means, she is honest in herself and other. Although, the result is not appropriate. There are two dialogues that show honesty in desire. Both are from Judy, Judy : I like trying, actually and Judy : This has been my dream since I was a kid. Judy says to her parent that she wants to be a cop and she says that she will try to be the first rabbit who be a cop and she did.

In conclude, honesty can be shows by saying the truth of the words, honesty in action or deed and honesty in desire. This is a little bit different from (Arianty, 2016), she states Behavior based on an attempt to make himself as a person who always trustworthy in word, action and work. The difference itself is in the word of work and desire.

2. Sedulity

Sedulity can happen because of a challenge. This challenge itself can happen to prove everyone that the characters of the movie can do their goals. Sometimes, there is person who underestimates that we cannot do anything. Because of that, someone have to hard work to make the goals come true. It happens to Judy, chief Bogo does not believe that Judy can be a good cop. So, chief Bogo just gives Judy a job as token bunny and Judy says to him A 100 tickets. I'm not gonna write 100 tickets. I'm gonna write 200 tickets before noon.

In addition, sedulity can happen because of responsibility. To be a trusted person, we have to responsible with our duty, like with the characters of the movie. Judy states because of my mistakes. I have to fix this. She realizes that she makes Zootopia be apart. After she goes to her home, Bunny Burrow, she knows a truth about something and it relates with what happens in Zootopia. So, she comes back to Zootopia and she tries to make Zootopia be a better place again.

In summary, responsibility and a challenge can make people be sedulous. Responsible can make someone to be trusted person and challenge can make people believe on our ability that we can make our dreams come true.

3. Helpfulness

Help can be done voluntarily. Help can occur because of empathy for other. Someone who helps sincerely will not ask the reward. As a social human, we cannot live alone. In other word, we will always need other people. It is same with the characters of the movie, they need each other. In the movie occur five dialogues that show the helpfulness because of empathy. Some of them are from Judy, Judy: kindly return my friend's ticket, and from Bellwether, she says Just call me, if you ever need anything. Okay?. Both of them help without being asked. They do it, because they want to help their close friend.

Besides empathy, help can occur because of returning the favor. In this case, someone who helps other person is the form of gratitude. Just one dialogue that show as the returning the favor, it is from Mr. Big. He wants to help Judy, because Judy has helped his daughter. The dialogue is I will help you find the otter. I will take your kindness, and pay it forward.

As a result, aspects of helpfulness can be form of empathy and returning the favor. Helpfulness itself is doing something for other people without ask the reward. We realize, as human social, we need each other.

4. Modesty

Respect can be the one aspect of modesty. As human, respect each other is very important. Respect to the older people and younger people. With modesty, we know our position in society. Like in the movie, the characters are still have modesty. For example, Judy, Judy is taller and bigger than mice. But, when she walks to their area, she says Sorry! Coming through. Excuse me, excuse me. Pardon. The other respect is can be from the appreciation of achievement. Anyone who gets an achievement, as a friend or people around have to appreciate it. Like chief Bogo did for Judy, Chief Bogo : The world has always been broken, that's why we need good cops. Like you. Chief Bogo states it, because Judy has done her best for Zootopia.

Besides appreciate an achievement, people can respect what other people choose. It can be done by praising them. Praise what they are wearing or praise other people's personality, like smart, clever and so on. For example from the dialogue; Judy: I love your dress, Nick: You are a clever bunny, and others.

Last of all, appreciate an achievement and respect what other people choose are the part of modesty. As human beings have to have a good attitude, because, people will treat us as good as we treat them.
