There are four social values that be found in Zootopia movie. The first is honesty, based on Arianty (2016) honesty is behavior based on an attempt to make himself as a person who always trustworthy in word, action and work. Characters in the movie show honesty of words and action. But, there is no honesty of work. It is the difference of the theory that is used and the findings. The theory does not mention honesty of desire. But, the researcher finds honesty of desire from the dialogue of the movie. So, honesty can be shows by saying the truth of the words, honesty in action or deed, honesty in work and honesty in desire.

2. Sedulity

The other social values after honesty is sedulity. Consistent to every regulation is the definition of sedulity based on Arianty (2016). Indeed, every people have to do regulations in their life. Helpfulness is the third social values in the movie. Miladiyah (2014) states helping is an obligation for every human being. Mutual help can build good relations with everyone. Then, can make love each other between neighbors, between friends, between coworkers. The findings show that helpfulness can be form of empathy and returning the favor. Helpfulness itself is doing something for other people without ask the reward. From the theory and the findings, the researcher can state that as human social, we need each other. To have a good relation with others, we have to realize what people need and feel. So, we can help them without asking the reward. Then, if someone treat us good, we have to treat them better.

4. Modesty
