

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

In this chapter consist of the background of study, the formulation of research problem, the purpose of the study, significant of the study.

A. Background of the study

As an international language, English language is used to communicate among people in the different country. However, the result is the students ability to write English language is low because the teacher just explain the material orally without being supported by teaching aids. One of the reasons is that more people need to learn writing in English for academic purpose. To write well people must have good capability in writing. More ever, peoples wants to write the essay, story, and handwriting must to know the steps in writing process and aspect of writing. The writer must be able to organize the ideas, to construct the sentences, to use punctuations and spelling well. Besides that, they must be able to arrange their writing into cohesive and coherent paragraph and text that is why writing is a very complex skill. Thus, it is not easy task for English teacher to teach it. Teacher often find difficulties in teaching writing.

Writing is the one of the four language skills. Writing involves communicating a message by making signs on a paper. Writing is the activity that students can use to write their ideas of the object into transcript style. To write student need a message and someone to communicate it..