The focus problem to be solved is students' low participation which makes them being passive in speaking class. One technique which can be used to improve students' speaking skill is through story completion. In this research, the researcher uses some instruments for collecting the data; they are test, observation sheet, and questionnaire.

Based on the finding in preliminary study, cycle 1, and cycle 2 it can be proved that there was significant improvement. There are some students or 15% pass the test in preliminary-test. Then, there are 12 students or 60% pass the test in cycle 1, and there are 17 students or 85% pass the test in cycle 2.
