This chapter conveys conclusions and suggestions. The conclusion is drawn based on the finding related to the objectives of the research. Meanwhile, the suggestions bring the ideas or the opinion toward the other parties related to this research.

A. Conclusion

Based on the data analysis and findings presented in the Chapter IV, two conclusions based on the objectives of this research can be formulated as follows.

1. All types of slang exist in the movie. Those are fresh and creative, flippant, imitative, acronym, and clipping. The most dominant type is fresh and creative which appears 51 times. The next type is flippant which appears 26 times, followed by imitative, acronym, and clipping which appears once each.

Fresh and creative becomes the most type used in the movie because it refers to new vocabulary, informal variety, cleverness, imagination, and it can be also up to date words. The least type of slang used in the movie is imitative, acronym, and clipping.

2. All functions of slang exist in the movie. Those are to address, to humiliate, to initiate relax conversation, to form intimate atmosphere, to express impression, to reveal anger, and to show intimacy. To initiate relax and to reveal anger appears as the most function with 7 times each. The next function is to address which appears 5 times, then to show intimacy appears 4 times, followed by to form intimate, and to express impression both appears 3 times. For the least, slang have function to humiliate which appears only twice.

To initiate relax and to express impression becomes the most function of slang used in the movie because the characters utter slang to their friends or people who have a close relationship with them. Then to humiliate appears as the least function because the movie was about friendship and solving crime not about criticism.
