A. Conclusion

This thesis entitled “An Analysis of Moral Message in Sherlock Holmes Movie (The Hounds of Baskerville)”. In here, the researcher analyzed the moral message in this movie and the dominant moral message which found also how moral message conveyed in this movie.

The research findings indicate that moral message which reflected in Sherlock Holmes Movie “The Hounds of Baskerville” consist of ten moral messages. They are honesty, courage, peace ability, self-reliance and potential, discipline and moderation, loyalty and dependability, respect, love and affection, kindness and friendliness, and justice. In this movie honesty was shown by both Sherlock and John. Sherlock was honest with John in some scene and John also honest with Sherlock as a partner. Second is courage. Courage shown by both Sherlock and John how they solved the case without afraid of anything for their client sake. Third is Peace ability. Peace ability shown by John. John can know the situation and he prevent the situation worse. Fourth is self-reliance and potential that shown by Sherlock. Sherlock was having a confidence with his ability and can make a client trust him more. Fifth is self-discipline and moderation shown by John. John here thinks as a detective has always to be rational and stick to the fact. Sixth is loyalty and dependability shown by John. John was a good partner and loyal partner to Sherlock and help Sherlock with all his capability. Seventh is respect and shown by Henry, Sherlock, Inspector, and Frankland. Here, Henry was a kind man who has a good respect with Sherlock even he was a rich man. Sherlock in some way has good attitude and respect when come to a case, Inspector had a good respect to both Sherlock and John because of their ability, and Frankland also respect to Sherlock because of Sherlock's ability. Eighth is love and affection Sherlock, John and Dr. Stapleton. Both John and Sherlock always have a good affection, know each condition, care to each other's. Dr. Stapleton had a good eye in other condition. Ninth is kindness and friendliness and showed by John. John was always kind in any situation as a former army doctor. Tenth is justice and shown by Sherlock. Sherlock always stick to the fact and always wanted to reveal a case fact.

In the research findings also indicate that moral messages dominant conveyed directly. The details of how the moral messages conveyed are thirty-two moral messages conveyed directly while twelve moral messages conveyed indirectly. From here, this movie script writer wants to give the moral and explanation directly rather than indirectly. Because, Sherlock movie itself is a detective movie that have an analysis and deduction which always conveyed directly to make the viewer understand.

Based on the findings was explained before in this study, the researcher conclude that the dominant moral message found in Sherlock Holmes Movie "The Hound of Baskerville" is justice. Whereas in this study the researcher found eleven data refers to justice.
