Dear Authors, Contributors, Reviewers, Editors, and Partners of JAFEB,
Thank you for your guidance and everyone's everlasting support to JAFEB's ranking and reputation for its quality and its impact in the scholarly international community. Since its inception in 2014, we all together worked hard for JAFEB's current standing and achievements as follows:
JAFEB's Current Standing and Achievements and 2021 Status and Outlook
(1) SSCI Evaluation Progress and 2021 status: The Journal of Asian Finance, Economics and Business (JAFEB) has submitted its Journal Evaluation Submission Form to Clarivate Analytics' Web of Science - Social Sciences Citation Index® (SSCI) on April 2019 and has received the first decision on Inclusion into Clarivate Analytics' Web of Science - Emerging Sources Citation Index(ESCI) on October 2018 and has just received a status report on December 26, 2020 (see the attached). JAFEB remains Clarivate Analytics' Web of Science - Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI) status for some time. [—Our strategy is to only re-evaluate ESCI journals that map to Q1 or Q2 of the relevant flagship category. Our analysis indicates that your journal does not fulfil the requirement for re-evaluation at this time, but please be assured that we will continue to monitor its performance on a regular basis.] We all hope to receive its first impact factor and its first 5-year impact factor of Web of Science Core Collection on June-July 2021 at its best (see the attached).
(2) Scopus and Scimago Standing and Ranking and 2021 Status: The Journal of Asian Finance, Economics and Business (JAFEB) has submitted its Journal Evaluation Submission Form to Elsevier's SCOPUS Content Selection and Advisory Board on April 2015 and has received the first decision on inclusion into Elsevier's SCOPUS for coverage in Elsevier Product(s) on April 2018. For your information, Scopus SciMago CiteScore2019 (0.5), SJR2019 (Q3: 0.192), and SNIP2019 (1.219) scores of JAFEB has been in place on Scopus and the Scimago website from June 2020 (CiteScore Tracker2020 indicates 2.1 as this date of December 8, 2020). It has been a continuous hike every month: 2020 January 1.14August 1.54September 1.79October 1.99November 2.1 -> December 2.1: accessed on January 12, 2021. see the attached).

We acknowledge that the road to such excellence requires a single-minded dedication to a long-term goal that may be even harder from now, considering our commitments to higher education, significant published research and scholarship, excellent teaching, mentoring of students, engaged university citizenship, family, new technology, and COVID-19 pandemic. Though the direct immediate result of our effort sometimes does not come along in the direction of our wishes, we must go forth confidently in the direction of our dreams. We will continue to speak of championing of humbleness, integrity, excellence, persistence, determination, and perseverance. We wish you best of luck in your future endeavors as we respect your dedication to the strong work ethics and creating shared value for a better world.
Happy New Year! May every wish of yours get fulfilled beautifully in the upcoming year.
Sincerely,
