

Appendix 3

Picture of the main character in the 'Sherlock Holmes' Movie

When Magnussen tried to read about the social status of Sherlock. Like gender, higher education, accomplishments already achieved, how many cases are handled, and Sherlock have a great point.

Describe how Sherlock has high imagination when dealing with the case. He uses a trick where everyone was amazed at his prowess. He tried explain to the John Watson about how to get into the office of Magnussen is very private.

Sherlock using tricks which he called “human error”, which he used to gain entrance into Janine private lift. He pretend to apply for Janine. The trick finally succeeded.

So easily Sherlock in dealing with his case, he did not hesitate to try drugs which were very dangerous his body. He together with the people who are addicted to drugs very spooky buildings and rundown.

When he know that the wife of his friend, John Watson is a pandering Magnussen. He tried to describe how the personality of a Mary.

Characters that have become a Sherlock, his face describe that he is the type of someone angry and sensitive, especially on his brother, Mycroft. He threatened his brother to break his arm if kept talking. Mycroft whereas only aims to help Sherlock in handling the case with ease,

Jim Moriarty, he is hoarse from all the issue faced by Sherlock. Where he appeared in last season after Sherlock killed Magnussen. He appears a sign that there will be cases that would Sherlock face, and with a little facial expression looks very shifty, he said: “ did you miss me?” It is a threat.

Sherlock and John Watson has a personality which was described themselves respectively. Like from how they dressed, wearing clothes, as well as their facial expression. Shirts worn Sherlock had means that he is upper class detective and with a slightly elongated hair style to make it good looking. And John he wears a shirt like not a medical doctor but a doctor who once worked in army