

CHAPTER VI

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter presents conclusion and provides the suggestion concerning on the type of moral values and the speech acts appear in the moral values of The Lights Between Oceans movie by Derek Cianfrance.

A. Conclusion

After analyzing the types of moral values and the speech acts appear in the moral values of The Lights Between Oceans movie, the researcher came to the conclusion that found that twelve type moral values and the speech acts also have different characteristic. The moral values that have been taken from the movie are; (1) Bravery is do not afraid meet danger and pain or hardship (2) Honesty is telling the truth in the beginning better than lying (3) Enthusiasm is nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm (4) Kindhearted is don't expect anything in return for doing good (5) Love and affection is love not only makes someone happy, but also fights for the person you love (6) Loyalty is loyalty will show an honor (7) Peace loving is forgive not because deserve to be forgiven, but it will deserve peace (8) Sacrifice to others is sacrifice needed to get what you want (9) Sincerity is a naturalness of sincerity reflects someone who has a noble heart (10) Strong belief is optimism belief to get achievement. This moral values dominant tell about statement, so the categories speech acts in the movie are declarative speech acts for the direct and indirect speech acts.

B. Suggestion

Based on the conclusions above, then some suggestion related to this research will be present. In this study, the researcher focuses to analysis the type of moral values, and the speech acts appear in the moral values of “The Lights Between Oceans” movie. The researcher found ten types of moral values in “Light Between Oceans” movie. There are bravery, honesty, enthusiasm, kindhearted, love & affection, loyalty, peace loving, sacrificing to Other, sincerity, and strong belief. Then the researcher found two type of speech act that appear in moral values there are direct and indirect.

To the further researchers especially English Department who want to conduct research on the moral values in the movie, this research can be used as basic knowledge and assist their research about moral values in literary works, especially a movie. The researcher think that the result of this research is not perfect. For that, the researcher suggest for the next researchers to conduct their investigation in the similar field related to type of moral values and the speech acts but on another objectives and another media. It will provide more knowledge about the content of the type moral values and the categories of speech acts.

For the teachers, this study can used to improve students ability in english learning and teaching. The result of this study expected to give contribution and can be used as references in english learning and teaching. For english learners, it is expected to learn a lot of literary work, especially movie, because watching movie not only entertaining but also increase knowledge about the type of moral values and the speech acts appear, and it will be used to improve their English ability and apply the moral values in daily life.