

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

The chapter presents conclusion and provides the suggestion concerning on analyzing the moral message in the Curtis Hanson's Movie "8 Mile"

A. Conclusion

After analyzing the data and some of the findings, it was concluded that there are 7 values of Altruism with a total of 18 values and distributions, Compassion (2), Caring (4), Cooperative (3), Helping others (2), Willing to sacrifice (2) , Sincerity (2) and finally Sympathy (3) found in 8 Mile Movie. Reflected that Altruism can be found anywhere even in 8 Mile Movie. Then the researcher concluded that the 7 values of altruism found were in accordance with the existing education in Indonesia, because basically the curriculum related to educating the character of students is the main one in the curriculum.

B. Suggestion

The researcher would like to give a few suggestions after getting the results of the analysis as a significant consideration for teachers, researchers, and future readers.

1. Suggestions for teachers

The researcher hope that this research can encourage and enrich knowledge about how to be a good teacher who is able to take positive values from anywhere. This movie can help teachers to develop ways to teach children and apply positive values in the teaching and learning process.

2. Suggestions for further researchers

The researcher will open up opportunities for other researchers to conduct further analysis of the value of altruism in the future. Researcher hope that in the future this research can expand other research that also analyzes through the value of altruism.

3. Suggestions for readers

The researcher hope that this research can enrich readers' knowledge of literature, especially on the value of altruism. It is hoped that after reading this research, the reader can understand and interpret the values of altruism found in everyday life.
