A. Conclusions

Characterization in movie is the process of the actor's interpreting a character in a movie. It is a very important component in a movie. Each character must have its own characterization, which of course is different. It is not always equated with the psychology or social conditions of the players, but characterization can also be given through the different backgrounds of the players. Thus, through the different characterizations that the producer gives to the cast, it adds value to the viewer's appeal. Through the characteristics, the viewer will be able to easily find out the character of each player, thus making the movie easier to understand.

Based on Boggs & Petrie (2012) the characterization can be seen appearance, dialogue, external action, internal action, reaction of other character, contrast: dramatic foils, caricature and leitmotif, and choice of name. The results in this research are the comparison and contrast of the characterization of Joe and 22. The characterization of Joe showed that he was a casual musical teacher, enthusiast, careless, meaningless, loved jazz, worried excessively, ambitious, regretful person, hardworking, cheated, passionate, and expressive person. Meanwhile the characterization of 22 showed 22 was a soul which was naked, naughty, honest, pessimistic, annoying, love music, afraid, angry, nervous, hopeless, enthusiast, and hated earth. In addition, there were some messages that can be learn from Soul movie, they are enjoy the little things in life, our passions are not always our purposes, our plans are not necessarily the best, and never give up.
