

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter explains the two parts, which are the conclusion and suggestion. The conclusion is based on the result of the description of data presented in the previous chapter. The suggestion is given related to the future researchers.

A. Conclusion

This part focuses on concluding the result of study according to the discussion from all previous chapters. In this study, the researcher has the main purpose to analyze the main character's conflict and how the main character's conflict builds the plot in this novel. The main character's conflict in this study is physical, sociological, and psychological conflict. The physical conflict in this story is the conflict that happens between the characters. The second one is sociological conflict, the conflict in the character's struggle against the culture of the environment. The last is psychological conflict, this conflict is occur when the characters struggle with/herself.

The plot of Haunted: Possession novel are the exposition, complication, climax, falling action, and the resolution. The aims of conflict in the story make the reader more interested, especially the horror genre will make them can feel the sensation of afraid, anxiety, and sorrow.

B. Suggestion

The researcher suggest for the readers to analyze the setting in the novel, because in Haunted: Possession has a amazing detail in setting element, whether place, time, or social environment setting. The researcher hopes that the result of this study can be useful as a reference for future researchers who want to get more information about literary work, especially in a novel. In addition, the researcher also suggest other researchers to analyze the same novel “ Haunted: Possession by Lee Mountford” but in different point of view. However, they can analyze other elements in the novel such as character, theme, setting, moral values, etc. The next researcher can explore those elements more deeply.
