Example:

Introduction

Good morning ladies and gentlemen and also my dearest friends. Thank you for the time and opportunity that have been given to me this morning to talk about Indonesian national heroes. First of all, I would like to give be together here in the good health.

Body

The figure of a hero is those who persistently fight for the rights of the nation and try very hard to empower the nation of Indonesia to become a nation of dignity, prosperity, and sovereign. Hero is a figure that must be respected. Their existence is very meaningful. Indonesia is a country which is rich of history. If we look back, there are so how many heroes that have poured out their energy and mind to help us all feel a freedom. Without the heroes we may still live with misery. Independence was obtained because of the struggle of the heroes. Let us all always remember our national heroes. And let us reflect, respect, and gratitude to the heroes by providing something useful for this beloved nation. Therefore, every November 10, Indonesia will commemorate the national hero's day. It's all meant for us not to forget the struggles of our heroes. Our task is to appreciate the services of the heroes who have fallen and filled the freedom well. We must fill our independence with positive and proud things.

Body

Ladies and gentlemen and also my beloved friends, long time ago, our national hero were trying hard to fight for Indonesian independency. They sacrifice their soul and body so that the nation of Indonesia becomes a free nation and no longer oppressed by other nations. They fought every day and night, battling with the colonial state until they died. They fight together. They are fighting for a better future. We can all gather together today thanks to the services of our heroes. So we should be grateful for the merits of the heroes.

Body

Speaking of the heroes, actually there are a lot of people who can be considered as a hero. Indeed, a hero is not only those who fight for the rights of the nation during the colonial period. There are many other heroes that we sometimes forget about. The teacher, is one of the figure of heroes. Because of the guidance of the teachers we can grow big with the knowledge and better personality. Without their guidance, it is almost impossible for us to grow up stronger. Let us all also always remember the merits of our teachers. They have devoted all their ability to help us become a person who is ready to face the life. Only a great nation that never forget about the past history. Therefore, I invite all of us to contemplate and interpret the Memorial Day hero. Certainly, according to our capacity as the students. Nationalism and patriotism, we embody in the earnestness of learning, by fighting the laziness and something that is not useful. We should not just be lazy because in the old times, all the heroes struggled so we could all feel the education.

Conclusion

We as young people must continue the ideals of the heroes to advance the nation of Indonesia. Ladies and gentlemen and also my dearest friends, this is the end of my speech about the national heroes. Hopefully my speech can be useful for all of us, I apologize if there are any mistakes. Thank you for your attention.

Pros and Cons of Abortion

Do you agree with abortion? When someone asks this to the people, there may be many –yes and equal number of –no, voicing their opinion over this. Abortion has always been a debatable subject amongst the masses as people have their own arguments regarding it.

For those who are for, they think that sometimes life can be really harsh on us. In some cases, medical emergencies make a woman resort to this action because there is a possibility to be atrisk, if she delivers the child. In some other cases, some of the rape victims can be minors. They won't be mentally or physically prepared to have the newborn baby. Giving life to such an unwanted child may cause troubles for both mother and the child.

After all, abortion implies denying someone a well-deserved life. Just because the odds aren't in our favor, can we deprive someone the chance to live? Besides, having an abortion done also carries the risk of not being able to become pregnant ever again in life. Abortion can also lead to serious health complications or even a death. Whether you agree or not, abortion will always happen in our society. While for one, having a forced child can be a highly miserable experience, to the other, abortion can be a highly miserable experience.

CHAPTER V ASKING AND GIVING OPINION

Don : So when will you be coming back to New York Kerri.
Kerri : Oh I don't know.
Waiter : Hi guys, is everything okay?
Don : Yes, it's delicious thank you.
Waiter : That's great.
Kerri : New York waiters never leave you alone. I really don't like all this hi guys is everything okay stuff.
Don : Why do you mean waiters aren't friendly in London? Oh, they're very friendly.
Kerri : Yes, they're friendly but not too friendly, they don't bother you all the time.
Waiter : Can I get you anything else? More drinks maybe?
Don : No thanks, we're fine
Waiter : Fantastic.
Kerri : See what I mean. Personally, I think people in London are a lot more easygoing. London is just not as hectic as New York.
Don : I'm sure we all like peace and quiet, but in my opinion New York is possibly, well no it's definitely greatest city in the world. Don't you agree?

Kerri : To be honest I definitely prefer London.
Don : Come on Rob, you've lived in both. What do you think?
Rob : Oh well I have to say London is very special, it's more relaxed it's got great parks and you can cycle everywhere, it's dangerous to cycle in New York.
Don : Why would you cycle when you drive a car.
Kerri : You can't be serious.
Don : Okay I agree, London has its own peculiar charm but if you ask me nothing compares with the city like New York, the whole world is here.
Kerri : But that's the problem, it's too big there are too many people everybody's so stressed out and nobody has any time for you.
Jenny : I don't think that's right Kerri; New Yorkers are very friendly.
Kerri : Oh sure, they can sound friendly with all that have a nice day stuff, but I always think it's a little bit fake.
Don : You've gotta be kidding me.
Rob : Oh I'm sorry I'll just to take this. (phone ringing) Hello. Yes. You're who? The taxi driver. What did she leave? My cell phone, right okay yes we are still at the restaurant, see you in about 5 minutes.

FABLE

➤ Transcript:

One day a mighty lion tired from hunting all morning laid down to take a nap under a large shady tree. Some mice that lived at the foot of the tree scrambled over the sleeping lion to return to their home. But just as the last rolling was crawling over him, the lion woke up. The lion laid his paw on the little mouse, trapping him. The mouse was very afraid. He apologized to the lion for disturbing him and begged him to spare his life and let him go.

The Lion pitied the little mouse, so he lifted his paw and set the mouse free. Sometime later the lion was walking near the mouse's home. The lion accidentally stepped on a trap set by a hunter, and a net made of thick ropes captured the lion and pulled him up into tree. The lion struggled to free himself but could not. His angry roars rumbled through the forest as he became upset and afraid. The Mouse heard the lion's cries. Remembering the Lion's kindness, the mouse ran to the tree and climbed up to the trap. He used his sharp little mouse teeth to gnaw the thick ropes and set the lion free.

The lion and the mouse were friends forever after both of them learned that it is good to help someone who has helped you. Moral of the story: good deeds are rewarded. The End.

First song: Do you want to build a snowman:

Elsa?

Do you wanna build a snowman?

C'mon let's go and play!

I never see you anymore, come out the door, it's like you've gone away We used to be best buddies and now we're not, I wish you would tell me why

Do you wanna build a snowman? It doesn't have to be a snowman Go away, Anna!

Okay, bye

Do you wanna build a snowman? Or ride our bikes around the halls?

I think some company is overdue, I started talking to, the pictures on the walls — Hang in there, Jones!

It gets a little lonely, all these empty rooms, just watching the hours' tick by Elsa?

Please I know you're in there, people are asking where you've been They say 'have courage, ' and I'm trying to, I'm right out for you, just let me in

We only have each other, it's just you and me, what are we gonna do?

Do you wanna build a snowman? (sniff)

Second song: Sofia the first:

I was a girl in the village doing alright Then I became a princess overnight Now I gotta figure out how to do it right So much to learn and see

Up in the castle with my new family in a school that's just for royalty

A whole enchanted world is waiting for me I'm so excited to be (Sofia the First)

I'm finding out what being royal's all about (Sofia the First)

Making my way it's an adventure everyday

It's gonna be my time (Sofia)

Weber High Graduation 2015

You know, I've never understood how, um, imagining the audience naked, was supposed to make you less nervous. Honestly I'm just uncomfortable right now. Especially with Mr. Wardle. Um, okay. To ensure clear communication with this "social media generation", hashtags and pop-culture references will be used. #you'rewelcome. Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. Today is an exciting day: today I'm going to give you a speech. Now, graduates, I don't know if you know me, but I'm Chase. We went to High School together. That was good times, follow me on Twitter, and I want to give a big congratulation to everyone including myself for being here today. The world we live in is plagued with dangers: Ebola, ISIS, Global Warming, facial acne. And despite all the odds, we still managed to graduate, so let's give us a big round of applause. It was only three years ago that we came to the labyrinth known as Weber High. As young, timid sophomores we found ourselves lost in its halls like they were the changing stair cases of Hogwarts. We danced to lyrics we did not understand in the song "Gangnam Style". We said "YOLO" and "cray-cray" as if we were supposed to. Thank goodness we have "yeet" now. We anticipated our cataclysmic doom at the end of 2012. And back then, Weber High School had no windows. Oh wait, it still doesn't. Ooh. I know, I know, it was a cliché joke but it was still necessary, #sorrynotsorry. Though nervous as sophomores, we started getting a hang of things, and Junior year for many of us brought experience, and for many more of us it meant Stage 1 Senioritis. And now, here we are: done with High School!

As Charles Dickens put it, "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times." But now we are through with the stressful days of AP and ACT testing. We have raised tens of thousands of dollars for Quarters & Cans, and inhaled hundreds of pounds of baby powder during football. We have survived "WHS Screenshots". And last but not least, we have realized that we are the most attractive class ever. As our Student Body President, Mikah Meyer, has observed, quote, "One might say we've aged well." And now as seniors listening to me deliver this brilliant graduation speech, we are through, afflicted and overwhelmed with Senioritis. Now at the end of our careers as students, we have an opportunity: now is our time to take on the world, and to find and pursue our passions; to quote unquote,

"Leave a Legacy." William Shakespeare, and also Channing Tatum, once said, "Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them." In life, we can't always count on being born great, or having greatness thrust upon us, but always, always remember that the opportunity to achieve greatness is within our grasp. Keep in mind that many of our social and political leaders and heroes started their lives as an average person; as just one of you and me. Despite the failures and mistakes we will make, and although we may be "average", we find that the average can achieve greatness, whether recognized by the world or just a few. Greatness comes from our friends reaching out to us, those who go out of their way to be thoughtful; the "unsung heroes". If there's anything you take from today, remember that to "leave a legacy" and to "achieve greatness" is not to get money and recognition, it's to leave those with whom you cross paths with a little more happiness and hope.

Our time here together as a senior class will not be remembered by grades, popularity, likes, or favorites, but by our relationships. The kind of person you were. These are legacies, the kind we must leave. Class of 2015, it's been a #splendid 3 years with you, and from the bottom of my heart I wish you all the very, very, very best. Thank you.

CHAPTER XV DISCUSSIONS

➤ Transcript:

Jane : Hello everyone today we're going to talk about insomnia. Insomnia means that you can't sleep. Our participants today are Noen, Myntra, and Alan before we start I want to say that insomnia is important because how we sleep affects our health our studies and our relationships so let's hear from everyone we'll start with Noen.

Noen : Okay, I think stress is one of the major cause of insomnia just imagine that you just got out of a fight with your girlfriend or boyfriend you could be overwhelmed by feelings and emotions because of that it can be hard for you to fall asleep which leads to insomnia, what do you think?

Jane : I think that's a great point our relationships with other people and other causes of stress definitely contribute to insomnia.

Myntra : What do you think I definitely agree with noon and I think another cause and I can major cause of insomnia is that drinking a lot of caffeine can cause insomnia too.

Youknow I'm such as drinking too much tea or coffee because if you drink a lot of caffeine the Coffee and then will make your blood go faster in your body and it will make you feel very energetic and you cannot fall asleep.

Jane : Yeah, so true I think I experience this problem daily okay so we've talked about stress and caffeine Alan what's your opinion?

Alan : Well, I agree with Noen and Myntra. That stress is a big factor especially you knowif you're in a relationship and caffeine is another big factor I bused to have that problem myself with drinking coffee but I want to talk about another major cause which is your surroundings I think that outside noises pets and people can really affectyour ability to sleep so outside noises that might be something like traffic lots of cars and trucks outside your window sometimes if you have a pet the pet wants food or wants to go outside so you always need to get up in the middle of the night and finallysometimes loud people like a loud neighbor or a loud roommate can really keep you up at night with all the noise that they make like in the kitchen especially. So overall the surroundings are a huge because of insomnia

Jane : Yeah, so we heard about surroundings and caffeine and stress and I think these are all important causes of insomnia. So thank you very much to my participants today and thank you to the audience.
