

ABSTRACT

Yusron Dimiyati, NIM 3211103157, "Islamic Education Teachers Efforts in Improving Students Worship in Durenan Islamic Junior High School." Thesis Faculty of Tarbiyah, Department of Islamic Religious Education, State Islamic Institute (IAIN), guided by Mr. H. Zaini, S. Ag. M. Pd.I

Background of this study departs from the phenomenon that occurs in the community, indeed among teens rampant promiscuity regardless of religious terms, it is certain lack of knowledge about education, especially about religious education. Religion teaches us to be worthy of worship to the Creator and away from any ban. In addition to the role of parents is more important is the role of teachers, especially teachers of Islamic religion, which is able to grow and strengthen one's religious education. Therefore, the authors are interested in knowing the various efforts made by the Islamic teachers in improving student worship in Durenan Islamic Junior High School.

The focus of this research problem, namely: 1) What strategies are used by teachers of Islamic religion in an effort to improve student worship in Durenan Islamic Junior High School? 2) How does the media used Islamic teachers in improving student worship in Durenan Islamic Junior High School? 3) What factors supporting and inhibiting Islamic teachers in improving student worship in Durenan Islamic Junior High School?

The research objectives of this thesis are: 1) To determine the strategy of Islamic teachers in improving student worship in Durenan Islamic Junior High School. 2) To know the media used Islamic teachers in improving student worship in Durenan Islamic Junior High School. 3) To know the factors supporting and inhibiting Islamic teachers in improving student worship in Durenan Islamic Junior High School.

The research method in this study used observation, interview and documentation. Observation method is used to look at the phenomenon and the symptoms that are applicable to reality. Interview method used to ask something concerned efforts of teachers of Islamic worship in increasing students. School documentation as proof or amplifier of any observation and interview results.

After the authors conducted research with some of the methods above, the authors obtained the following results: 1) how strategies used by teachers of Islamic religion in an effort to improve student worship in Durenan Islamic Junior High School: (a) The concept of teaching and learning must be based on the intention of worship. (b) In the process of teaching and learning must understand the position of the teacher as an educator and student as a learner. (c) Embedding sincerity in performing worship and train students with the sunnah fasting. 2) Media used Islamic teachers in improving student worship in Islam Durenan junior Terri is (a) auditory. (b) visual. (c) audiovisual. 3) factors supporting and inhibiting Islamic teachers in improving student worship in Islam Durenan junior Terri is (a) the supporting factors: adequate infrastructure and competent educators. (b) inhibiting factor is the awareness of the importance of student self-worship, and the lack of strict supervision of the school and parents.