MOTTO

اطلبوا العلم ولو بالصين

“Seek knowledge even if it be in China.”

(Narrated by Imam Al Baihaqi in Syu’abul Iman, No. 1612)

Live with grace, stay kind and quick-witted — just as my mother taught me: to be warm-hearted, agile, and always true to others.

— My mother’s words, a lifelong guide

DEDICATION SHEET

This thesis is wholeheartedly dedicated to:

1. My late mother, the first person who ever loved me—thank you for bringing me into this world and for raising me with so much care, warmth, and patience. Your values shaped who I am today. Even in your absence, your presence stays in every step I take. I hope this small accomplishment would make you proud. May Allah grant you the highest place in Jannah. Aamiin.
2. My beloved father, a true warrior and my lifelong role model. Thank you for your endless strength and sacrifices. You have carried both roles with courage and love. I am forever grateful for everything you have done for me. May Allah bless you with health, peace, and a long, fulfilling life. Aamiin.
3. My younger brother, my teammate in life, my partner in crime, and my unexpected best friend. Thank you for being there in the quiet moments, for the silly laughter, and for the comforting silences. You may be younger, but your support means the world to me. May Allah guide and protect you always. Aamiin.
4. And finally, to myself, thanks for holding on, for showing up, and for not giving up, this is for you.
