MOTTO

إِنَّ مَعَ الْعُسْرِ يُسْرًا

"Indeed, with hardship comes ease."

(QS. Al-Insyirah]: 6)

Life is emotionally abusive. And it's fine to fake it till you make it until you do, till it's true.

You've got no reason to be afraid. You're on your own, kid. Yeah, you can face this. You're on your own, kid. You always have been.

DEDICATION SHEET

1. My dearest mother, Mrs. Eni Sudarwati. Thank you for your endless patience, warmth, and love that have never once wavered. Though we may be separated by distance, your presence is always close through your prayers, late-night messages, and gentle reminders to take care of myself. You have been the voice that kept me grounded, the comfort that kept me calm, and the strength that helped me stand when I was on the verge of falling. I will never be able to repay everything you've given, but I hope this small achievement makes you proud.
2. My beloved father, Mr. Sujito, whose quiet strength and sacrifices speak louder than words ever could. You have always worked so hard for us, enduring exhaustion and long days without ever asking for anything in return. I see you in every step I take, your resilience, your dedication, your love. Thank you for teaching me what it means to be responsible, sincere, and strong. Your efforts are not forgotten, and this is as much your success as it is mine.
3. My younger brother, Rahmat Bari Nurfauzan. Thank you for being a constant part of my journey. Your presence at home, your support for our parents, and your care in your own way have meant a lot to me. I'm truly grateful to have you as my sibling, and I hope we can grow together and continue making our parents proud. You are, and always will be, a special part of this accomplishment.
4. My grandparents, Mr. Sutaji, Mrs. Misini, Mr. Pardi, and Mrs. Wiji. Thank you for your unconditional love, sincere prayers, and the gentle care that always greet me whenever I come home. Your presence, wisdom, and kindness have given me strength in quiet ways. I dedicate this achievement to you, with gratitude for every support you've given, both spoken and unspoken.
