LIST OF FIGURES

Figure 4. 1 Alex staring out the car window upon hearing the news of Gladys's arrival (01:28:05), illustrating his static, emotionally withdrawn character prior to the crisis.	57
Figure 4. 2 Alex desperately attempting to rouse his father by pouring water on him (01:34:26), the first clear evidence of progressive character development as his protectiveness overrides his habitual passivity.	61
Figure 4. 3 Alex snapping Gladys's branch (01:57:10), the decisive act that liberates his classmates and marks the culmination of his progressive development.	62
Figure 4. 4 Alex displaying a blank, vacant expression on the school (01:38:05), a visual manifestation of his psychological regression following Gladys's coercion....	65
Figure 4. 5 Alex watching his entranced classmates enter his house (01:46:22), marking the deepest point of his regressive phase as he becomes a passive bystander to the harm, he has been coerced into enabling.....	66
Figure 4. 6 Alex feeding his imprisoned classmates in the basement (01:48:23), illustrating the mixed character state in which residual compassion coexists with ongoing coerced compliance.....	68
Figure 4. 7 Alex giving a monosyllabic response to his father during the car ride home (01:27:51), illustrating characterization through dialogue: even in a safe and affectionate environment, Alex does not volunteer information.	71
Figure 4. 8 Alex peering through Gladys's bedroom door (01:31:03), illustrating characterization through action: he seeks understanding from a position of safety, unwilling to expose himself to direct risk.	74
Figure 4. 9 Alex embracing his recovered parents (02:01:13), the emotional culmination of his characterization through action, confirming that the protection of his family has been his core motivation throughout the movie.	74
Figure 4. 10 Alex's face tenses as Gladys coerces him into promising silence (01:35:55), illustrating characterization through appearance: his physical reaction externalizes an internal conflict his words cannot express.	76

Figure 4. 11 Alex deflecting his teacher's direct offer of support (01:43:26), illustrating characterization through interaction: the gap between available help and his coerced inability to receive it..... 79
