CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This part presents the conclusion and suggestion of the research.

A. CONCLUSION

Literary work is created for the purpose of interaction between the author and the reader. As a means of expressing idea, literary work is composed by using selected words through the process of imagination. Through reading continually, the reader will be able to enjoy and appreciate the literary work. A reader is supposed to understand what he or she reads as long as she or he can get the messages. Based on the result of the findings or discussions of the study, there are seventeen values found in the novel of Negeri 5 Menara by A. Fuadi translated by Angie Kilbane represented by the major characters. Those are: (1)Religious, (2)Honest, (3)Tolerant, (4)Disciplinary, (5)Hard-working, (6)Creative, (7)Self-standing, (8)Democratic, (9)Curious, (10)Nationalistic, (11)Patriotic, (12)Appreciative, (13)Friendly, (14)Peaceable, (15)Well-reading, (16)Unyielding, and (17) Socially responsible.

Those values are important possessed by every individual. Those values, practically, can be beneficial for each individual to live together in the society. Those values, in fact, can inspire the individual in his or her daily activity that lead him or her to be successful in achieving self-esteem and even self-actualization.
